An UNAUTHORIZED debit (with the exception of TEL entries) means an electronic fund transfer from a consumer's account initiated by a person which was not authorized by the consumer, via a writing that was either signed or similarly authenticated, to initiate the transfer. With respect to TEL entries, an unauthorized debit means an electronic fund transfer from a consumer's account initiated by a person who was not authorized by the consumer, via an oral authorization, to initiate the transfer. An electronic fund transfer in an amount greater than that authorized by the consumer or which results in a debit to the consumer's account earlier than that authorized by the consumer is also an unauthorized debit. An unauthorized debit does not include an electronic fund transfer initiated with fraudulent intent by the consumer or any person acting in concert with the consumer.

Complete this Section ONLY if this transaction was IMPROPER

An IMPROPER debit means a Re-presented Check (RCK), Accounts Receivable Entry (ARC), or Point-of-Purchase Entry (POP) that meets the criteria described in section four. A RCK is a transaction for use of representing paper items (drafts/checks) that have been returned for insufficient or uncollected funds. An ARC (also known as a PPD) transaction is the mechanism for converting consumers checks mailed for payment in return for goods or services into electronic form (an ACH). A POP transaction is when a merchant is permitted to initiate a one-time ACH debit entry to a consumer's account at the point of purchase (at the time a purchase is made).

Please select only one entry option below:
