

Statement of Qualifications / Biography

Thank you for your interest in serving on our Board of Directors. We believe that every volunteer helps to make South Bay Credit Union a quality institution for our members and community.

Please provide us with a Statement of Qualifications/Biography that includes the information outlined below (should not exceed 250 words).

- Personal Statement – where you live, work, professional qualifications, and community involvement
- Credit Union Experience – when you became a member of SBCU and any credit union experience you may have.
- Your Vision for the Credit Union – what would you like to see the credit union accomplish in the next 5 years?

Once your paperwork has been received, the Nominations Committee will review your qualifications and contact you to discuss the next steps.

We look forward to having you as part of our credit union family.
